

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL

FURKATING COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)

P.O. FURKATING, District: Golaghat, Assam, India, Pin: 785610

Re-accredited by NAAC with A+(4th Cycle)

Phone: 9365446210, 9435515241, 6003149751

---

Programme Outcomes of Post Graduate Programme

DEPARTMENT OF ASSAMESE

Student will able to know about:

1. The Assamese language, literature and culture.
2. The heritage and development of literature through a systematic study of the history of Assamese language and literature. Therefore, it is important to ensure that the students are responsible for the enrichment of the Assamese language and literature.
3. The linguistic status, linguistic diversity and linguistic exchange of the languages of Assam through the study of other languages spoken in Assam.
4. Basic understanding of various types of Eastern and Western literature and their criticism.
5. Able to aware the diversity and integrity of Indian literature through the study of Indian literature.
6. Technological development of Assamese language by integrating Assamese language with modern information technology.
7. Involvement in vocational practical training.

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

1. Advanced Understanding of Political Concepts and Theories,

Students will acquire an in-depth understanding of advanced political theories, ideologies, and institutional frameworks across historical and contemporary contexts.

2. Analytical and Research Skills

Students will develop the ability to apply critical, theoretical, and interdisciplinary approaches to analyze political systems, governance processes, and public policies at local, national, and global levels.

3. Evaluation and Interpretation of Political Ideas

Students will critically evaluate and interpret political ideologies, values, and concepts, understanding their impact on society, governance, and international relations.

4. Proficient Academic and Professional Writing

Students will enhance their capacity to produce scholarly research, policy briefs, essays, and analytical writings that reflect a high standard of academic rigor and critical insight.

5. Ethical Research and Information Synthesis

Students will ethically gather, analyze, and synthesize information from diverse sources, including primary, secondary, and electronic resources, ensuring the integrity of their research.

6. Interdisciplinary and Historical Perspective

Students will adopt historical and interdisciplinary methodologies to examine, interpret, and address complex political phenomena.

7. Leadership and Decision-Making Skills

Students will develop critical thinking, decision-making, and problem-solving skills necessary for leadership roles in governance, public administration, and political advocacy.

8. Professional Communication and Career Readiness

Students will cultivate effective verbal and non-verbal communication skills, discipline-specific terminologies, and argumentation techniques, preparing them for careers in academia, civil services, diplomacy, journalism, and non-governmental sectors.